After many exciting adventures, Puss and his family give the agre a taste of his own medicine.

Dick Whittington's Cat

A side-splitting movie of a delightful cat . . . afraid of mice. Delightfully amusing far young and old.

Old Mother Hubbard

Mather's dog delivers the King's laundry and gets his head caught inside a roast turkey. The sight cures the King's dyspepsia and brings him fortune and happiness.

The King's Tailor

The wicked giant pursues the king whose trousers are filled with bees. Trapped in a lake the tailor cleverly rescues the plagued king.

Sinbad The Sailor

Escape to a treasure island! An exciting adventure cartaan full of joyful incidents and plenty of action.

Mary's Little Lamb

The little lamb nearly ruins the school show by cleverly imitating each pupil. The fun finally ends with a blackout for the teacher.

The Headless Horseman

Ichabad Crane is pursued by the Headless Horseman. Brom Bones the winner gets a real surprise for all his trouble.

Jack Frost

Jack Frost warns the little bear about King Winter, but he runs away. Finally rescued and returned home, sadder but wiser.

The Big Bad Wolf

Little Boy Blue and Little Bo Peep give the Big Bad Walf a real drubbing with the aid of a scarecrow and a swarm of bees.

Aladdin's Lamp

Amusing tale of the boy slave and the genie-producing magic lamp. The villain peddler appears but is comically routed.

The Pincushion Man

In Ballaon Land the Great Terror is the wicked Pincushianman. He is finally overcame and beaten by the queerest army every assembled.

Little Black Samba

Samba's hectic chase with a real and make-believe tiger makes howling entertainment.
